Investsefton Newsletter Issue 30 November 2014

Welcome to the latest edition of the Investsefton newsletter, which we hope will give you the opportunity to find out more about the latest business news, opportunities, events, funding, incentives and support available to businesses in Sefton.

Sefton Economic Forum 'Are you ready for Growth?'

As we near the end of 2014, the Sefton Economic Forum will take a look back at what's happened and a look forward to the future; planning for growth and helping you to achieve it.

The Forum will be followed by a series of 4 workshops aimed at meeting key business issues:

- Intellectual Property
- Marketing
- Twitter
- New ways of doing business with Sefton Council

The Forum will be held at Aintree Racecourse on Tuesday 25th November from 7.30am until 10am, with workshops from 10am to 12pm. (All delegates will be able to attend 2 of the 4 workshops)

The SEFTON ECONOMIC FORUM can be a platform for your business to connect you to new customers in the UK and globally. For more information on the forum and the workshops, or to book your place, visit our website.

Small firms to get free legal help from Liverpool John Moores University

Liverpool John Moores University's School of Law will provide free legal advice to start-up businesses and members of the public as part of a new service, launched this week.

A new commercial arm of the centre will give advice on matters affecting start-up businesses, such as contract and intellectual property law.

Clients will initially make contact by phone or an online form to request an appointment. If they can be helped they will be offered a face-to-face meeting with the case team.
