

This figure is the number of houses that could be accommodated on sites in the existing urban area(s) of Southport. These sites have been identified through our housing land study, which can be viewed on www.sefton.gov.uk/shlaa

This figure is the number of houses that could be accommodated on sites in the existing urban area(s) of Formby. These sites have been identified through our housing land study, which can be viewed on www.sefton.gov.uk/shlaa

This figure is the number of houses that could be accommodated on sites in the existing urban area(s) of Crosby & Hightown. These sites have been identified through our housing land study, which can be viewed on www.sefton.gov.uk/shlaa

This figure is the number of houses that could be accommodated on sites in the existing urban area(s) of Maghull, Lydiate, Aintree & Melling. These sites have been identified through our housing land study, which can be viewed on www.sefton.gov.uk/shlaa

This figure is the number of houses that could be accommodated on sites in the existing urban area(s) of Bootle & Netherton. These sites have been identified through our housing land study, which can be viewed on www.sefton.gov.uk/shlaa

Approximately 300 units of this figure are expected to be provided after the end of the Local Plan period, i.e. after 2030

Proposed Development Sites

- Sites included in Option 2
- Reserve sites for Option 2
- Unsuitable sites - mitigation cannot overcome constraints
- Site with planning permission
- ★ Greenspace sites with potential for development
- Proposed Thornton - Switch Island link road
- Sefton Boundary

- E Employment site
- M Mixed sites (Housing and Employment)

Other housing sites in the urban area -
(These do not include windfalls that have been granted Planning Permissions since April 2012).

Map Creation Date: 19/06/2013
G:\GIS\Working_Data\01_22_09_Core_Strategy\01_22_09_02_Local_Plan - Preferred Option\Maps For Cabinet
© Crown Copyright and database rights 2013 Ordnance Survey 100018192

